

First Aid Station in Tom Bradley International Terminal

Please be reminded that a first aid station is located in the Tom Bradley International Terminal on the departures level near the Customs and Border Protection office. Should your employees or customers need assistance, please call the first aid station at (310) 215-6000 and an emergency medical technician (through Reliant Medical Care) can respond to your location within 10 to 15 minutes.

If it is a major medical situation that needs immediate response, please call the LAWA Airport Police at (424) 646-7911.
